From outdoor enjoyment through indoor training - all but state-of-the-art facilities and equipment for activity seekers. Beyond the gates, cool island discovery awaits: variety is indeed the spice of life at Sugar Beach.

Planted in an utterly exotic savannah setting, a perfect match to its dramatic landmark backdrop – Rempart Mountain, Tamarina's exclusive golf estate offers an exceptional championship course for aficionados, amateurs or starters. Great driveways, just a short drive, away.

Carefree days and affectionate togetherness. Sugar Beach offers everything families could wish for to indulge in restful and fulfilling holidays. Parents and kids alike are really spoiled for choice.

The sweetness of island living

On the leeward side of the island, rightly named the sunset coast, Sugar Beach has made stylish island living its distinctive domain. With its balmy sea and year-round coastal temperatures, it is the perfect holiday destination.

Fringed by extensive coral sand beaches and the splendid west coast lagoon, the resort spreads out across more than 12 hectares (30 acres) of beautifully landscaped tropical gardens, unfolding its contemporary plantation-style architecture from a central reception area. Accommodation facilities are distributed between the Manor House and 16 villas comprising of 258 guest rooms and suites. Check-in time at Sugar Beach is set as from 2pm (14.00h) and check-out by midday (12.00h).

Elegant accommodation

Interior design harmoniously complements the contemporary plantation theme of the resort with real mahogany furniture and all modern amenities for utmost comfort and convenience. Privacy and intimacy are assured. Louvered shutters, blackout curtains and pastel sheers artfully play with light and shade. Every room has its own private patio or balcony with easy chair, Ottoman and day bed. 2 suites are available. Both standard and superior rooms have either twin, king-sized or two queen-size beds to accommodate adults or children sharing. Cots and connecting rooms are available upon request.

Standard rooms have bath-with-shower and toilet. Superior rooms have separate bath, stand-up rain shower cubicle, separate toilet as well as a larger vanity. All rooms are provided with fully stocked mini bars, free tea and coffee making facilities, air-conditioning and LCD flat-screen TVs with satellite connection for English, French, German and Italian channels. Rooms also feature desks with a variety of plug points, international direct-dial IP telephones, Wi-Fi internet access, electronic safes, hairdryers, electrical shaver points and luggage racks.

Restaurants & bars: epicure's treasure trove

At Sugar Beach you are spoilt for choice. Each of the 4 available venues proposes their very own cosmopolitan flavours all wrapped up with the local touch and all yours to savour.

Mon Plaisir, the main restaurant, opens daily from 4.00am for guests on early departure or going out fishing or golfing. It thereafter serves a full English and continental breakfast buffet from 7.30am until 10.30am. Evenings feature live cooking themed and cosmopolitan buffet dinners. The bar, inspired by French pavement cafés, opens out onto an adjacent garden court area featuring an authentic craft market and staging live street evening entertainment. It serves aperitifs and offers a superb selection of old rums, malt whiskies, single barrel bourbons and Havana cigars.

Tides beach front restaurant and bar offers a world seafood cuisine for lunch and dinner. Guests can compose their own platter from the elaborate and spectacular centrepiece counter. At lunch, Tides also prepares light poolside meals that can be ordered with refreshments from its bar stocked with an impressive variety of international beverages and mixing the finest plantation rum cocktails. And for those wanting to enjoy a meal or drink in the privacy of their own thatched umbrellas along the beach, the Beach Trolley will come their way. Tides bar also serves a great traditional five-o'clock tea, with cakes and pancakes before turning into a sophisticated night spot with live music and entertainment and dancing to the resident DJ.

Citronella's café in an Italian market-place setting and ambience by the ocean side, offers light meals, featuring wood-fire baked pizzas and salads at lunch time and authentic regional Italian cuisine at dinner. The adjacent bar serves refreshments and aperitifs throughout the day.

Paul & Virginie restaurant, located within walking distance at neighbour and sister resort La Pirogue, features under its romantic thatched pavilions an 'à la carte' menu: for lunch – a selection of popular island cuisine, wood-fire baked pizzas, grilled, smoked or steamed fare, tossed salads and sandwiches; for dinner, more sophisticated dishes and select seafood.

In-room dining for private enjoyment

Room service is available 24 hours-a-day for continental breakfasts, light meals and beverages, as you wish, in the privacy of your patio or balcony.

Sports and activities galore

The Main Pool, 2000 m³, and surrounding decks offer fun and leisure to all ages, including a relaxing bubble pool and separated kids' area. The South Pool, located in a quieter area is ideal for more restful moments.

As for land and water sports or fitness training – Sugar Beach offers an impressive range, including martial arts, interactive spinning classes, cardio and vibro gym as well as Pilates. Personal trainers are available on request at extra charge. Sports enthusiasts also have a dedicated bar at their disposal for refreshments or gatherings to watch international sporting events on a large flat screen TV. This bar also includes video games, music TV, pool tables and converts to one of the coolest night time teen spots, when its very own DJ plugs in to throw a party!

Exotic golfing

Golf aficionados or guests wishing to make a leisurely start at it can avail themselves of the agreement concluded between Sugar Beach and Tamarina exclusive golf resort, located just a short drive away, down coast. A professionally designed championship course awaits connoisseurs and amateurs in an extraordinary setting.

Aura spa & hammam, absolutely sensuous

One of its kind in Mauritius, Sugar Beach's beauty and body care facilities include a fully equipped hairdressing salon for men and women, single and couples beauty and treatment rooms with dedicated Shiatsu areas and a luxury hammam. Designed for ultimate pampering, Aura is a wonder world of exclusive treatments, designed for ultimate pampering, all performed by professional therapists.

Children's facilities: happiness for all

Sun Kids Club caters, free of charge, for children from 4 to 11 years and at an extra Babysitter's charge for children of 2 and 3 years. The club provides world-class fun and age-appropriate daily varied programmes. Dinner time provides a special event every evening and a selection of menus, buffets and barbecues, under the supervision of specially trained hostesses, are served at the club. @Sungeneration offers free teen membership and customised daily activities for 12-17 year olds. Regular evening get-togethers are organised including beach BBQs, Pizza nights and campfires. Really no chance to grow bored!
