RUSSIA'S ICONIC LUXURY HOTEL

JEWEL AMONG TREASURES

A CULTURAL AND CULINARY LANDMARK SINCE 1875, BELMOND GRAND HOTEL EUROPE ENJOYS AN UNRIVALLED LOCATION ON NEVSKY PROSPEKT. IT IS SURROUNDED BY GLITTERING GLOBAL ATTRACTIONS SUCH AS THE RUSSIAN MUSEUM AND CHURCH OF OUR SAVIOUR ON SPILLED BLOOD.

The hotel resounds with the echoes of gatherings staged here over the decades. Tsar Nicholas II entertained the King of Siam in the Krysha Ballroom; young Dmitri Shostakovich played a sonata for Sergei Prokofiev, and Grigori Rasputin was often spotted carousing in L'Europe restaurant with friends.

Rooms and suites

Our 266 suites and guest rooms reflect the ambience and levels of luxury enjoyed by the Tsars.

The Historic Floor, which includes butler service, features 10 unique Historic Suites (right). Each has its own name, from Dostoevsky to Stravinsky, and design concept.

Six sumptuous new suites are devoted to Russian avant-garde art (left); the expansive Presidential Suite boasts a gold-domed entrance lobby.

The fifth-floor Terrace Rooms (above) are graced by elegant outdoor spaces offering panoramic views over the city — particularly popular in summer.

Deluxe and Superior Rooms

Deluxe and Superior Rooms are filled with the authentic, stylish elegance that has long defined the hotel. Windows of Deluxe Rooms offer impressive views of the Philharmonic Hall and Mikhailovskaya Street, perfect for watching city life roll by. Superior Rooms face the hotel's inner courtyard.

Fine dining

Gastronomic traditions are lavishly brought to life in the hotel's five restaurants.

In the Caviar Bar, a vodka sommelier pairs the finest caviar with ice-cold vodka.

L'Europe has been welcoming diners since 1905. Admire its art nouveau décor while savouring European haute cuisine.

At AZIA an enticing fusion of Asian cuisines is on the menu. Fire, steam, wok and tandoor combine to create delicious feasts.

The Mezzanine Café serves light dishes, including treats from the hotel's own chocolate factory.

The Lobby Bar, with live entertainment every night, is open round the clock.

Tchaikovsky Nights

In honour of the great composer, who honeymooned at the hotel in 1877, every Friday evening L'Europe hosts a gourmet dinner with a chamber orchestra and ballet duo performing scenes from Swan Lake.

Sunday Brunch

Spend a leisurely afternoon enjoying our sumptuous brunch, with unlimited sparkling wine, caviar, and both European and Pan-Asian specialities, as the city's top jazz orchestra plays.

EVENTS AND WEDDINGS

Belmond Grand Hotel Europe's banqueting rooms regularly host the country's most dazzling social events. Accommodating up to 250 people, they are the perfect setting for lavish wedding receptions, elaborate dinner dances or intimate lunches.

IDEAL FOR BUSINESS

In addition to a self-contained Conference Centre, the hotel provides everything from grand spaces for large presentations to a range of smaller rooms for break-out meetings and discussions.
